Our Journey

Enterprise is committed to building a business where everyone is included, heard, and has equitable opportunities to succeed.

As our business has grown and evolved, we have doubled down on measures to create an inclusive and supportive environment where women can develop exciting and thriving careers.

Our focus on leading by listening has shaped our long-term strategy and investment to achieve gender balance and build a more diverse and inclusive culture:

- ✔ A dedicated Chief Diversity Officer to drive the global diversity strategy
- ✔ Creation of a DE&I global council to provide strategic direction and integration across operations, strategies, mission and objectives
- ✔ Localised initiatives and employee resource groups (ERGs), including Women in Leadership committees, the Enterprising Women Board and the Women Initiative Network
- ✔ A reverse mentoring programme that helps senior leaders to develop better listening skills, especially with their diverse teams

- ✔ The expansion of DRIVE – our employee-led gender diversity platform – into a thriving online hub for career advice, inspiration and best practice
- ✔ A package of coaching and personal development programmes through specialists at Talking Talent to provide support during key life stages including maternity, shared parental and adoption leaves and returning to work
- ✔ Collaborating with partner organisations and external specialists like Business in the Community to gain invaluable expertise and improve responsible business practices
- ✔ A wellness programme to destigmatise menstrual and menopausal health in the workplace led by a gynaecology nurse practitioner and menopause specialist
- ✔ Enhanced flexible working and alternative work arrangements
- ✔ Female mentoring programmes aimed at career progression and leadership development
- ✔ Café Stop, an online meeting place where people working remotely can make vital connections with others from different parts of the business
- ✔ A diversity dashboard to enable team leaders to better understand the diversity metrics and measures of their teams benchmarked against the overall business
- ✔ DEI questions are now a part of all manager interviews

Our Commitment

We will continue to focus on measures that:

Enable and empower employees to build successful careers

Attract more women into the business

Retain women returning to work after maternity leave

Develop our female talent into senior leadership roles

This will ensure that our promote-from-within policy will over time create a diverse and balanced workforce at all levels of the business.

Enterprise is a vibrant community that embraces the personal and professional goals of its employees. Our longstanding focus on the development of women has resulted in Enterprise being named as one of The Times Top 50 Employers for Women for 18 consecutive years.

We continue to work closely with Business in the Community's gender equality campaign and I serve on the BITC national gender equality leadership team.

We know that our business is best when we have diversity across all levels and represented through our leadership. Our current global CEO and her predecessor are both women, demonstrating that the automotive and transport industry is a place where women can have terrific careers.
